

Anatasia Dumbrava

Anastasia Dumbrava was born on 1 January 1930 in Straseni. She was the youngest of four children. She never attended school or learned to read or write. She worked in the local kindergarten.

Anastasia married at the age of 40 and had one son. He is physically disabled and requires constant care and supervision. Her husband died soon after her son was born. Anastasia was severely beaten by a man in her neighborhood and has long-term mental disabilities as a result.

Anastasia lives with her son in a two-room house. Her pension is 23 Euros a month and her son's is 19 Euros. Most of this money is spent on medication. Very often they run out of food, clothing, and heating fuel.

Anastasia asks for financial assistance for clothing, food, medication, and heating fuel.
